

TIME BRINGS CHANGES.

THE late Mr. Miller's Lease of Jones Caniff's mill having expired, begs to inform the Farmers, that he has no further connection with that Establishment, and would solicit a continuance of the trade of his old friends, at ALMA MILLS, formerly Raynes Head's, where every attention will be paid to Grinding. Being the manufacturer of his own Flour and having gained considerable Making Business, he will be enabled to pay the highest price for the best wheat.

He would further beg to state that he will be enabled to put up the finest kinds of corn Groins at his Flour and Feed Store, next door north of Peoples's Hotel, on Front Street.

HENRY CORBY.

N. B.—All accounts due the undersigned for goods purchased at Caniff's Mills, are requested to be paid to him at the above place, forthwith.
